Napranum Shire Council Welcomes New Chief Executive Officer

Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Kelleher as the new Chief Executive Officer.

Mr Kelleher brings with him a wealth of local government experience and a strong understanding of governance, leadership, and community engagement. His extensive knowledge of working with Indigenous councils and communities will be a valuable asset in supporting Council's ongoing commitment to strong, culturally respectful leadership and effective service delivery in Napranum.

The Mayor and Councillors welcomed the appointment and acknowledged Mr Kelleher's experience and commitment to local government.

Mayor of Napranum said Council looks forward to working closely with Mr Kelleher to continue strengthening the organisation and delivering positive outcomes for the community, Mark brings a wealth of government experience and an understanding of the unique role Indigenous local governments play in supporting community development, cultural respect and strong governance.

Council is confident that Mr Kelleher's leadership will help guide the organisation as it continues to focus on community priorities, sustainable growth, and improved opportunities for residents.

Napranum Shire Council warmly welcomes Mr Kelleher to the community and wishes him every success in his new role as Chief Executive Officer.

Kind Regards,

Roy Chevathen
