THURSDAY 21 May 2026	Suzie-Madua Hall 8:30am – 4:00pm	Licensing & ID Services (Written & Practical) and all enquiries.

The Indigenous Driver Licensing Unit (IDLU) will now be visiting Napranum on Wednesday 20th and Thursday 21st May 2026 at the Suzie Madua Hall from 8:30am to 4:00pm. This visit comes after the previous scheduled visit had to be cancelled due to Tropical Cyclone Narelle. Council thanks the community for your patience and looks forward to welcoming the IDLU team back.

Getting your driver's licence is an important step toward independence, employment, and safer roads in our community. Services will include licensing and ID support, written and practical testing, and learner licence testing daily at 1:00pm. Community members are encouraged to attend, bring all required original ID, and take advantage of this opportunity.

Napranum Vet - Visiting soon

A visiting vet will be in Napranum on 9th & 10th June.

Take this opportunity to have your pets desexed and health checked—helping prevent unwanted litters, reduce roaming, and keep your pets healthy.

Spaces are limited, so community members are encouraged to book early to avoid missing out. This is a valuable service being brought directly to Napranum for everyone's convenience.

This visit is made possible through the ongoing efforts of our Animal Management team, who continue to work hard behind the scenes to ensure community pets have access to essential care. Their commitment helps bring these important services to Napranum and supports the health and wellbeing of our animals.

WORDS FROM CEO

Hi everyone,

Just wanted to have a bit of a yarn and share how things have been going – and honestly, it's been a really good month for Napranum. We came through Cyclone Narelle pretty well, with very little damage, which is a great result.

What stood out most though was how everyone looked out for each other – checking in, helping out, and just being there. That's what makes this place special. We've also been having some really good conversations with Ergon Energy and Rio Tinto about making sure we're not left in the dark – whether it's something small or something bigger.

Those discussions are heading in the right direction, with better communication and stronger plans coming out of it, which is exactly what we want for the community.

You might've seen, or will see soon, that we've officially updated our address from Mission River to Napranum. It might not seem like a big change on paper, but it's something we can all be proud of – about our identity and putting Napranum front and centre.

We have our Community Meeting tomorrow Tuesday 6th May from 9:30am to 12:00pm, and I'd really encourage everyone to come along. It's a good chance to have a yarn, raise anything on your mind, and help shape what we do next. Councillors and staff will be there to listen and work through ideas with you, and there'll be some light refreshments as well.

A big congratulations to Tom Smith and Kelly Watters on locking in their permanent Director roles – well deserved. I'd also like to give them both a proper shoutout from myself and Mayor Roy Chevathen for the work they did leading into the cyclone. Tom and his team didn't muck around – they got in early, got organised, and made sure the community was as ready as possible. That kind of effort makes a real difference.

Now that the wet season has wrapped up, it's starting to dry out pretty quickly. Just a reminder to be water smart, and if you can, leave a bit of water out for local wildlife and the "town pets" – they feel the heat too.

I've got to say, I'm really enjoying being here. Great team, great community, and always a friendly face around – it makes it easy to come to work every day. As always, Council's here for you. If you've got a question, an idea, or something you want to raise, don't hesitate – come in, have a yarn, and we'll do our best to help.

Take care everyone, stay safe, stay cool, and look out for each other. If I don't see you at the community meeting tomorrow, I hope to see you soon!

Cheers,

Mark
CEO, Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council

REMINDER NO FIRES IN NAPRANUM

Fires are not to be lit at this time of year.

With dry grass and conditions, fires can spread quickly and put lives, homes and our community at risk.

COMMUNITIES, CULTURE & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

This training is to help them build on work skills for future projects and work on the farm.

Farm Works Training – Certificate II in Infrastructure and Resources

Council staff from the Farm completed a 9-day Certificate II in Infrastructure and Resources course which allowed them to gain new skills and knowledge for their positions on the Farm. Throughout this course they have completed the White Card, machinery training, working safely at heights and WHS policies and procedures.

Sports & Rec Recap

Now with the weather changing it is allowing more sport to be played throughout the week with the Deadly Active Program. Jonathan has also been working closely with Weipa Touch Association and now has a team of 12 Napranum players called the Young Guns, registered to play on a Wednesday night in Weipa at the Andoom oval. The Young Guns team played their first game on Wednesday 22.04.26 and won, which was amazing. We encourage community to come and watch them play in Weipa. There have been shirts ordered for the team to wear at each game.

COMMUNITIES, CULTURE & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

EVENTS - Anzac Day Service 2026

The Napranum community came together to honour the courage, sacrifice and enduring spirit of those who have served our nation, commencing with a march led by the 51st Battalion, Far North Queensland Regiment. The procession set a respectful tone for the day, as service members and community participants moved together in tribute.

The march was followed by a moving service where residents gathered in reflection, paying their respects to those who have served and those who continue to serve. The presence of the regiment added a strong sense of pride and connection to the broader defence community.

Following the service, a morning tea was held, where all who attended were warmly welcomed to join. This provided an opportunity for the community to come together, share stories, and reflect on the significance of the day.

Special thanks to everyone who assisted on the day, extend our gratitude to the attendees, Napranum Takeaway and Catering, and recognise the contribution of the 51st Battalion, Far North Queensland Regiment. We also thank our Master of ceremonies, Cr Ernest Madua (Jnr), for his leadership and meaningful role in the service.

Lest We Forget.

NAPRANUM CATERING & TAKEAWAY

The community is advised that Napranum Takeaway & Catering will be closed from May onwards as the business undertakes a series of exciting renovations and upgrades to their facility.

These works are being led by the takeaway team themselves, with a strong focus on improving both the space and the overall experience for customers. The upgrades will allow the business to expand the range of services they provide, while also creating a more comfortable, modern, and welcoming environment for the community to enjoy.

Napranum Takeaway & Catering has long been a valued local service, providing meals, catering, and a place for people to connect. These improvements are an important step forward in supporting the growth of the business and ensuring it continues to meet the needs of the community now and into the future. The planned enhancements are expected to not only improve day-to-day operations but also attract more customers and create new opportunities for the takeaway moving forward.

The team are excited to begin this new chapter and are looking forward to seeing the transformation take shape over the coming weeks. While the temporary closure may cause some inconvenience, it is a positive step toward delivering a better and more vibrant service for everyone.

The Napranum Takeaway & Catering team would like to thank the community for their patience, understanding, and ongoing support during this time. They are eager to reopen their doors and welcome everyone back once the renovations are complete, with an upgraded space and expanded offerings for all to enjoy.

Further updates will be shared as works progress, including reopening details.

Learner licence testing will also be available, giving community members the chance to take the next step toward gaining their licence right here in Napranum. Attendees are reminded to bring all required original identification documents and be prepared for the process on the day.

Council encourages all community members—whether you are just starting out or need help getting back on track—to make the most of this opportunity. Having a licence not only opens doors to employment and training but also supports independence and everyday needs such as travel and family responsibilities. The IDLU team is there to guide and support you every step of the way..

The 2026 Census is coming, and it's an important opportunity for every person and household in Napranum to be counted. The Census helps tell the story of who we are as a community and ensures our needs are recognised when planning for services, housing, health, and the future.

Census staff will be visiting remote communities to support residents, answer questions, and help complete the form. Everyone staying in your home on Census night should be included, including Elders, children, and visitors. All personal information is protected by law and kept safe. By taking part, you are helping make sure Napranum counts.

The information collected through the Census is used to guide important decisions at all levels of government, helping to secure funding and improve services in areas such as education, transport, and community programs. A strong response from Napranum ensures our community's voice is heard and our needs are clearly represented.

If you are unsure about how to complete the Census or need assistance, support will be available locally. Taking a few minutes to participate can make a long-term difference for our community, helping to shape a stronger future for everyone.

WHAT'S HAPS IN NAPS

The upcoming Ruchook Cultural Festival is a special time for the Napranum community to come together and celebrate culture, identity, and connection to Country. Held every two years, Ruchook is more than just an event – it is a proud tradition that honours the stories, language, dance, and knowledge passed down from our Elders. It brings families, visitors, and neighbouring communities together in a shared space of respect, learning, and celebration.

Ruchook has a strong history in Napranum, first held in 1992 with the support and vision of the late Dr Thancoupie Fletcher AO, whose legacy continues to inspire the festival today. The Western Cape Region flag, designed for that first festival, remains an important symbol of unity and cultural pride. Each festival builds on this legacy, keeping culture strong and ensuring that the next generation stays connected to who they are and where they come from.

Napranum looks forward to welcoming you in for Ruchook 2026

Becoming a stall holder at the Ruchook Cultural Festival is a great opportunity to showcase your business, skills, and creativity to the community and visitors. Whether you sell food, handmade items, art, clothing, or provide a service, having a stall allows you to share what you do with community and visitors. It's also a chance to connect with others, promote local talent, and be part of a major cultural event that celebrates the strength and identity of the Napranum community.

Council encourages community members, local businesses, and aspiring entrepreneurs to get involved and take up this opportunity.

More information on how to register, stall requirements, and event details can be found on the flyer so please register as soon as possible and start planning now if you'd like to be part of this exciting event.

A yellow flyer with a black banner at the top that says "EXPRESSION OF INTEREST" in white. Below the banner, it says "RUCHOOK CULTURAL FESTIVAL. NAPRANUM 2026" in white. Further down, it says "STALL HOLDERS" in red. A paragraph invites stall holders to be part of the festival. Below that, it lists what they are looking for: Food vendors, Arts, crafts & handmade goods, Cultural displays, and Community organisations & local businesses. At the bottom, it provides contact information for Nadine Dick and an email address. The flyer includes a logo for Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council and a photo of a festival stall.

Community members are invited to attend a special women's event on Wednesday 13 May at the Druamalon Women's Centre, Napranum, delivered in partnership with the NQ Women's Legal Service. The day will begin with a free morning tea, creating a welcoming and safe space for women to come together, connect, and yarn.

Session 1 (10:30am – 12 noon) will focus on a group discussion around domestic and family violence prevention, providing an opportunity for open conversation, shared experiences, and learning in a supportive environment. This session aims to raise awareness and empower women with knowledge and understanding around these important issues.

From 12 noon onwards, Session 2 will offer a DVO health check legal clinic, where women can access confidential one-on-one conversations with a lawyer about their individual situations. This is a valuable opportunity to seek advice, ask questions, and better understand legal options and supports available.

NAPRANUM'S MINI OP SHOP

Tina, our local Ambulance Officer, has generously donated clothes for our Women's Centre Mini Op Shop. Many other women in the community have also been dropping off bags of clothing. Queensland Country Bank has kindly donated care packs for women and young girls.

Our Mini Op Shop is now operating from the centre, with all items priced at just 50c. Proceeds go towards creating care and personal packs for women and young girls in need. Opening hours are 9:00am to 3:00pm. We're seeing women come in almost every day to shop for their little ones. We stock a wide range of quality clothing including boys', men's, women's, girls', toddlers' and babies' items.

This space is for you, ladies. Come along, make yourself a cup of tea or coffee, catch up with others, join in activities, or simply relax. Our Mother's Nest corner is there for you to unwind. Thank you.

NAPRANUM EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTRE

Hello from NECC!

During April, our children engaged in meaningful learning experiences as we recognised ANZAC Day. They took part in hands-on activities such as making ANZAC biscuits and listening to age-appropriate stories, helping to build an early understanding of remembrance, respect, and community connection.

In the YARR yard, our new edible garden has quickly become a highlight. Children have been enthusiastically involved in watering, observing plant growth, and caring for the garden each day. These experiences strongly align with the Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF), particularly in fostering a sense of belonging and connection to the world (Outcome 2), promoting wellbeing through outdoor and sensory play (Outcome 3), and encouraging children to become confident, involved learners through hands-on, inquiry-based learning (Outcome 4).

We are also pleased to welcome new staff members to NECC. Kawa Garama has joined us as our new cook, and Ikia Wallace as our new childcare assistant. We're excited to have them as part of our team and community.

We would also like to remind families that Nancy Wilson is our Early Childhood Coordinator (ECC). Her flyer can be found on the next page of this newsletter. If your family would like support connecting with early childhood services such as health clinics, daycare, or school, we encourage you to complete a survey with/for Nancy or reach out to her directly for assistance.

★ Join our team at NECC and help shape young minds in a fun, supportive learning environment!

📄 Check out the next page for the full job description and how to apply.

EARLY CHILDHOOD COORDINATOR (ECC)

Supporting children, families, and strong starts in life

What is an Early Childhood Coordinator?
An Early Childhood Coordinator (ECC) works alongside families to support young children in developing the skills they need to thrive and be healthy—at home, in early learning, and when starting school.

How I can Support You and Your Child

- ✓ Help your child grow, learn, and reach their full potential
- ✓ Support a smooth and confident transition to school
- ✓ Connect you with local early childhood education programs
- ✓ Link your family to health and development services
- ✓ Provide guidance on your child's learning, behaviour, and development
- ✓ Work with you to find the right supports for your family's needs

Working Together with Families
We understand that every child and family is unique.
I will:
Listens to your concerns and goals
Help you understand your child's development
Build connections with services in your community
Walk alongside you every step of the way

Why This Matters
The early years are critical for your child's future. With the right support, children can:

- 🌱 Build confidence and independence
- 📚 Develop strong learning skills
- 👪 Form positive relationships
- 🎒 Start school ready to succeed

Get in Touch
If you have questions or would like support for your child, the Early Childhood Coordinator is here to help.
Let's work together to give your child the best possible start in life.

Nancy Wilson- 0427 465 965

We'd also like to let the community know about some upcoming initiatives being planned at the Early Childhood Centre.

Over the coming weeks, we will be holding a "Parents Say Day". This will be a chance for parents and carers to come together, share their thoughts, and gain a better understanding of the Early Childhood Centre. It will also provide an opportunity to raise ideas with Council on how we can better support families—both those who are working and those who are not—and how we can work together to support our children's learning and development. Dates and times will be shared soon.

We are also planning an Op Shop in partnership with PAL, which will be taking place during Term 2. More details will be provided shortly.

In addition, we are currently working towards bringing key services together—including Centrelink, Birth Certificates, and Health Clinics—to better support families with children transitioning into and through early childhood in the coming years.

We look forward to sharing more information soon and encourage families to get involved.
