A Strong Start Together

Where Every Day Counts

Strong attendance is about more than just being in the classroom — it gives children more opportunities to learn, grow, build confidence and stay connected with their school community.

Every day a student comes to school is another opportunity to learn, grow, build confidence and stay connected with their friends, teachers and school community. The commitment our students are showing is something to be proud of, and every small improvement is worth celebrating.

Staff across the College are continuing to encourage students, recognise their achievements and make attendance something positive to work towards. Seeing students take pride in reaching their goals and celebrating their progress shows just how powerful encouragement and recognition can be.

A big thank you goes to all parents, carers, families, students and staff who are supporting this work. Together, we are building positive attendance habits and giving every child the best possible opportunity to learn, achieve and succeed. Read more on page 7

A WORD FROM CEO

Hello everyone,

Welcome to this month's community update. It's been another busy few weeks for Council, with exciting projects underway and plenty happening around Napranum — so let me take you through it.
We'll start with some great news: Napranum has secured Commonwealth funding to deliver free community WiFi, with installation and maintenance covered for the next five years. Council has been supporting this project since last year, so it's exciting to finally see it become a reality. Consultants are currently deciding the best locations for the service, so there'll be more to share on that shortly.
While that's coming together, Council has finalised the Budget 26/27. It's the document that sets the direction for the services, infrastructure and projects we'll deliver over the next 12 months, so getting it right matters — it's really about making sure we keep investing in the things our community values most.

Looking further ahead, Council has recommended keeping our two long-standing Special Holidays for 2027 — Traditional Fishing Day and Cairns Show Day. These days mean a lot to our community, and they'll now be submitted to the Queensland Government for official approval.
We're also thinking about the longer-term shape of Napranum itself. Work has begun on reviewing our Planning Scheme, which will help guide future housing, development and land use across the Shire. Planning properly today is how we make sure our community can keep growing sustainably for the generations who come after us.

Alongside all this forward planning, we've been checking in on the basics too. Council recently completed a Workplace Health and Safety audit across our facilities, and we're now working through the recommendations to help keep our staff, visitors and community spaces safe.
Safety is also front of mind after dark. Shortly, our Community Patrol will be out every night from 9.00pm to 5.00am, helping support community safety and wellbeing overnight. If you see the team out and about, be sure to say hello.

It's been a lively month around town too — we celebrated NAIDOC Week, welcomed members of the Australian Defence Force during Exercise Austral Shield 26, and we'd like to congratulate Cr Margaret Adidi on her appointment as Deputy Mayor for the coming year.
One last thing before I go — please note the August Ordinary Council Meeting has moved slightly, and will now be held on Monday, 24 August, to allow the Mayor to attend official engagements in Brisbane.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support of Council and our community. We look forward to sharing more with you next month.

NAPRANUM RUNNING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Napranum Celebrates a RAWsome 2026 IMF RAW Championships

The 2026 IMF RAW Championships were a wonderful success, bringing people together from across Australia for a weekend centred on connection, culture, wellbeing, running and walking.

More than six months of planning went into the event, from the first conversations through to community visits, coordination, problem solving and finally delivering the Championships on Alngith Country.

Napranum was proudly represented throughout the event, with one of our local relay teams taking out the relay event — a fantastic achievement for the community.

A sincere thank you goes to everyone across the Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council workforce who assisted and supported the event, whether through logistical, administrative, on-Country or behind-the-scenes support.

Special thanks also go to our local volunteers:

- Veronica Convent
- Kaylene Jawai
- John Bosuen

Olivia from the Indigenous Marathon Foundation

shared her appreciation for the support received from Napranum and the wider community.

“We are extremely grateful to the Napranum community for being welcoming and accommodating, and providing a place for connection, culture and wellbeing.”

Olivia also acknowledged the many organisations, community groups, Elders, leaders, volunteers and sponsors who helped make the Championships possible. These included PCYC Napranum, Napranum and Weipa IMF RAW, Napranum Justice Group, Kluthuthu Christian College, Napranum Takeaway and Catering, Weipa Community Care Association, Queensland Ambulance Service, along with local Leaders, Elders and many others working behind the scenes.

Local sponsors and supporters including Weipa Running Festival, Rio Tinto Weipa, Sodexo Australia and IBIS – Islanders Board of Industry and Services – Community Enterprise Queensland were also recognised for helping bring the event to life.

One of the most meaningful parts of the weekend was seeing RAW participants from across Australia come together, encourage one another, share stories and celebrate their achievements.

As Olivia reflected:
“Beyond the finish line, this weekend was a reminder that the true strength of RAW lies in the people.”

The friendships formed, confidence built, encouragement shared and communities represented were just as important as the running and walking itself.

Congratulations and thank you to everyone who contributed to making the 2026 IMF RAW Championships such a memorable event.

And in true RAW spirit, the celebrations are not stopping here — planning is already beginning for the 2027 RAW Championships.

WESTERN CAPE COLLEGE

Attendance Update – A Strong Start Together!

The start of term has been a little slower than usual as many families returned from the school holidays and the Cairns Show. Despite this, we are excited to share some positive news!
By Week 3, our school attendance increased by 3%, allowing us to reach our weekly attendance goal of 74% through our "TRY for 5! Earn Your Paint" attendance initiative. This is a fantastic achievement and reflects the commitment of our students, families, and staff.

To encourage regular attendance, teachers have been working with students who have lower attendance by setting up individual goals using 3-day, 4-day, or 5-day attendance cards. When students achieve their goal, they visit the office to celebrate their success and receive a prize. It has been wonderful to see so many students working hard to improve their attendance and taking pride in their achievements.

We know that every family's circumstances are different and a child's attendance is influenced by many factors. We would like to thank all parents, carers and family members for the effort you make each day to support your child's education helping them get to school.

If your family is experiencing challenges that make school attendance difficult, please reach out to us. We are here to work alongside you to find practical solutions and provide support where we can.

Where schools, families and community work together, we create stronger opportunities for every child to succeed.
This term our TRY for 5! MVP is Elise Poi Poi.

If you have any questions about attendance or need support please contact the primary CEC Inyika on: 0418132618 or email: inadr0@eq.edu.au

Together we can build strong attendance, strong learners and a strong community.

Napranum Aged and Disability Services

Exciting Times at Napranum Aged Care – Atakuny Village!
It has been a wonderful and action-packed time for our Elders and staff at Napranum Aged Care and Disability Services. From community festivals and connecting on Country to celebrating achievements and supporting health and wellbeing, our team has been making some very special memories.

Our First-Ever Ruchook Festival Stall
Alice Adidi and Kaylene Masso had an awesome day attending the Ruchook Festival last weekend, where Napranum Aged Care proudly operated its very first festival stall!
Our stall served delicious marinated chicken wings with rice, along with refreshing drinks. It was a fantastic opportunity for our Elders and team to participate in the festival, connect with community and showcase the spirit of Atakuny Village.

Celebrating Our Women on Country
Corine, Alice, Kaylene and Yantel shared a proud and memorable moment as Alice and Kaylene received certificates recognising their participation in the first Women's On-Country Day in Mapoon. This was a wonderful achievement and a beautiful celebration of women, culture, connection and learning on Country. Congratulations to both ladies—we are extremely proud of you!

A Meaningful Mapoon On-Country Experience
NADS staff members Justine Miller and Regina Mene joined Alice and Kaylene for an amazing Mapoon On-Country camping and day-trip experience.

The trip provided an opportunity to connect with Country, spend meaningful time together and gain valuable cultural knowledge. There was plenty of learning, storytelling, laughter and community connection throughout the experience.

Morning Tea, Movement and Wellbeing
NADS also hosted a special morning tea and occupational therapy exercise session in partnership with Allied Health.
Our Elders enjoyed coming together for gentle movement, exercise, conversation and a lovely shared morning tea. Activities like these help support mobility, confidence, independence, social connection and overall wellbeing.

At Napranum Aged Care, our focus is not only on providing services—it is about creating opportunities for our Elders to remain active, connected, culturally strong and involved in community life. We are incredibly proud of our Elders, staff and everyone who helped make these experiences possible. This is what Atakuny Village is all about: culture, connection, care and community.

MATT SMITH MP
Member for Leichhardt

Words from your Member for Leichhardt

I know that we're all being mindful of our spending at the moment, and that's why we've brought in a whole load of new cost of living measures that'll help stretch your wallet just a little bit further.
This month, I'd like to concentrate on how these measures will benefit you.
As conflict overseas has pushed up prices at home, Labor has been focused on helping with the cost of living. We know that many Australians feel like the economy isn't working for them. And that's been building for decades.

That's why we're delivering real change.

Earlier this year we announced two really great funding initiatives that will help to keep food on your table and grocery prices down. The Resilience and Efficiency package is delivering $37.2 Million to support an additional 75 remote stores across the region. This will help in strengthening First Nations community stores against supply chain interruptions and natural disasters. We have also funded the Low-Cost Essentials Subsidy Scheme to the tune of $27.4 Million. This scheme reduces the cost of 30 staple grocery items in remote First Nations communities by 30 to 50%, and that will be distributed amongst 225 local stores across the Cape.

I'm glad to say that we are now building critical infrastructure with our very own Maritime Strategic Fleet, starting with the ANL Kokoda. The Kokoda is a 175 metre long cargo ship which will be deployed in times of need, emergency or crises, such as natural disasters and supply chain disruptions. The ship will be on hand to deliver supplies, equipment and be able to assist when Australian communities or industries need it most. We expect it will be particularly vital to reach remote communities when extreme weather affects our regions, making sure that you have food and supplies when other transport routes are cut off.

I'd also like to concentrate on something slightly smaller scale, and indeed much closer to your home – that's right, I'm talking about the all new Leichhardt Community Calendar!
After several months and countless entries, our judging panel has finally selected the final thirteen photos for the Leichhardt Community Calendar. Sporting a range of beautiful photography selected from local submissions, the calendar has scenes and wildlife from all across our beautiful electorate of Leichhardt, spanning from the Esplanade up to the Torres Strait, stopping off at Kuranda, the Cairns Northern Beaches and plenty more along the way. It will look beautiful on your wall or shelf, and even better it's completely free!

Simply head to your local council office and they should have a calendar waiting for you at the front desk. Stocks are limited though, so please make sure to secure one today.
A huge thank you to everyone who took the time to send in their artwork, it was a real challenge to make the final selections, and if your photo didn't make it in, there's always next year to try again!

NAPRANUM WOMEN'S ON COUNTRY CAMP

Women Connect on Country at Mapoon

Around 29 women from Weipa and Napranum recently came together for a special Women's On-Country Camp at Mapoon, taking time out of their weekend to connect, yarn and enjoy being on Country together.

The camp provided a great opportunity for women from both communities to step away from their usual routines and spend meaningful time with one another in a relaxed and supportive environment.

Throughout the weekend, the women enjoyed fishing, gathering seafood, preparing and cooking food, sharing meals and yarning together. These activities created plenty of space for laughter, storytelling and meaningful conversations.

Sharing food was also a special part of the camp, with the women gathering and preparing seafood together before sitting down to enjoy meals as a group.

NAPRANUM WOMEN'S ON COUNTRY CAMP

The Women's On-Country Camp was a wonderful reminder of the importance of making time for connection, culture, Country and each other.

A special note of thanks and appreciation goes to Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council and staff, particularly Corine and her team, the Napranum Twal Justice Group, Mapoon Aboriginal Shire Council and staff, Mapoon Rangers, Mapoon Church, Weipa Gourmet Meats, Weipa Bakery and Weipa Community Care for their support and contribution.

A big thank you to all the women who took time out of their weekend to take part and contribute to such a positive gathering. With around 29 women attending, the camp was a beautiful opportunity to strengthen relationships and enjoy the simple but important things — being on Country, sharing food and having a good yarn.

If you're thinking about joining the next Women's On-Country Camp, it will be held from 10–12 September. Notices are now up on the Napranum Aboriginal Shire Council Facebook page, so keep an eye out for further details and register your interest if you would like to take part.
